NAPLES, FL

Inspirations for Youth and Families has responded to Collier County residents' request for an Inspirations treatment center in Naples. Our residential program (just across alligator alley in Fort Lauderdale) has represented Naples' youth in their need for residential treatment for adolescent drug abuse and risky behaviors (sometimes involving juvenile court orders and probation requirements). Now Naples' adolescents and families can seek outpatient care either as an aftercare plan (upon successful completion of a residential program) or as a primary care plan (in lieu of a residential program). Inspirations will provide individual, group, and family therapy along with a variety of therapeutic approaches designed to meet the needs of each adolescent and family. Please call Inspirations Naples' staff: Kim Paterno @ 888.757.6237 or Rick Furtado @ 239.216.7008 for additional information.

MICHAEL LOHAN TEAMS UP WITH INSPIRATIONS TEEN REHAB

Michael Lohan is a parent who has raised children and experienced the journey of adolescent behavior and growth. By Partnering with Inspirations he is fulfilling his promise to help teenagers and their families survive the difficult years of adolescent decision making and societal challenges that often impede on the healthy development of teens and their transition into young adulthood and preparation for life.

Michael Lohan has a passion for preventing the unnecessary dangers and consequences of adolescent decision making which sometimes include substance abuse and troubled behaviors.

As parents are seeking direction from experienced parents who have traveled the road of teenage parenting, Michael Lohan, with the support of Inspirations for Youth and Families, is available to provide his experiences and guidance as to how to overcome parental life challenges and difficult teenage peer pressures and circumstances.

Inspirations in conjunction with Michael Lohan are also partnering with Richard Rowell and Rance Rowell, a well respected family in Toccoa, GA - owners of Trembly Bald Mountain Resort. This will be Inspirations new retreat, a place for teens to discover and heal. Inspirations new Retreat offers a creek, a chapel, serene residences featuring log cabins, and authentic outdoor activities such as white water rafting, kayaking, hiking, mountain biking and zip lining. All activities provide for team building exercises which will be uniquely infused with an intense therapeutic program individually designed to meet each teen and family's needs, enveloped in the protection of confidentiality and anonymity.

At the Retreat, Inspirations Youth will provide short and long term adolescent residential treatment program featuring the coveted "Inspirations" approach in working with teens and families.
